PRESS RELEASE

New Beginnings Announces & Welcomes Larry Carter, Well-Known Christian Artist To Hoopeston, Illinois.

Larry Carter is a well-known Christian guitarist and music minister known for his soulful blend of gospel, folk, and rock. He began playing guitar at age 6, performing with his family on local radio stations and churches during his childhood.

After serving in the U.S. Army and performing in nightclubs, he faced personal struggles but rededicated his life to his faith in 1988. In 1989, he joined the Southern Gospel group, the McGruders, touring and recording with them for 4 years. The McGruders had success with a #1 Southern Gospel chart song, "I'm Going Home With Jesus" in 1990 and were on several television broadcasts nationally and abroad.

Subsequently, Larry embarked on a solo ministry, performing across the U.S. and Canada. Carter has contributed guitar work to numerous recordings, collaborating with artists like John Schlitt (PETRA), Bob Carlile (Butterfly Kisses), and Greg Volz. He is also a dynamic songwriter with compositions recorded by Ivan Parker, Tim Spell, Karen Harding, and many others.

Through his music and ministry, Larry Carter continues to impact the Christian music scene, offering messages of hope and faith to his listeners. His unique style of guitar playing has influenced hundreds of guitar players in the U.S., Canada, and abroad. Larry loves to work in his recording studio or hang out in his music store giving a guitar lesson or sharing a testimony. Larry resides in Doniphan, Missouri, with his family.
